Company history & background

UNK MARINE AGENCIES & LOGISTICS (PVT.) LTD.

Is the newest addition to the UNK Family; representing a significant step forward towards the vision of being a leading provider in the maritime industry. It was formed in the latter part of 2022 and officially commenced operations in January 2023 ; following the approval and governance of the Director of Merchant shipping, Sri Lanka.

UNK group is composed of several sister companies that have been in operation for many years; specializing in different areas of the shipping industry.

The first sister company, UNK Sagacious; is a full-service maritime staffing and recruitment agency, connecting highly qualified and experienced personnel to the shipping industry since its inception in 2006.

Formed under the leadership of a former chief engineer; it has an excellent track record for providing a reliable, efficient and cost effective service to our clients.

The second sister company UNK Global Maritime Training Institute is a leading provider of maritime education and training in Sri Lanka; conducting STCW training courses, Deck and Engine rating programs, Maritime English and Client specific in-house training since 2016.

Both UNK sagacious and UNK Global maritime training institute are approved by the director of merchant shipping in Sri Lanka, which governs all maritime-related institutions.

ABOUT US

From port clearance to crew changes; UNK Marine Agencies & Logistics caters to all of the vessel's owners, managers, and charterers' needs under a single roof.

The company offers its services at all Sri Lankan ports; including Colombo, Galle, Trincomalee, Hambanthota, and OPL.

Mr. Prashantha Karunayake; the current Managing Director and a former Marine Chief Engineer, is the stall wall behind UNK Group; who bore the vision to formulate a "one-stop" marine services establishment; offering comprehensive services to worldwide ship owners and operators. The idea is now a reality, with UNK providing seafarers, training, and agency services to all.

The office is located on the outskirts of the busy economic metropolis of Colombo and has a dedicated team of experienced specialists who attend to all our clients' needs cleverly and above all; cost efficiently.
